Marie Jaksch's performances and installation deal with political and social issues. They range from cross-space installations with performative sound elements and video sculptures to immersive live moments. The performative strategies are mostly situated in the context of an overall installation composition. The artist thus moves on the border of pictorial spaces and details, between sound and language, moving image and live observations

*2017 -2021 she studied digital and time-based media at the Academy of Fine Arts Munich in the class of Professor Julian Rosefeldt and Philip Gröning.

Diploma July 2021

*Meisterschülerin of Julian Rosefeldt.

*After her studies at the Berlin University of the Arts, UDK (Diploma Costume Designer with distinction 2013) she distinguished herself as a stage and costume designer for numerous art film and theater productions including Kampnagel Hamburg, arte, Volkstheater, Schauburg, schwere Reiter, Pathos Munich.
